Tuesday 6th May 2024

Did you know it's National Sun Awareness week? This is a campaign led by the British Association of Dermatologists and it aims to highlight the dangers of sun exposure. When the sun decides to get better, we hope that the sun will come out and make us all smile. But it is important that we take the sun seriously. If the sun does appear it is important that we use sun cream, stay hydrated and use shade to keep ourselves cool. It would be amazing if you could make a Sun Safety poster for your classroom. If you need any information; head to www.bad.org.uk.

★ WOW WORK! ★

Lewis H worked really hard on some writing to do with Romeo and Juliet. Great work Lewis!

Some of our KS3 Students are learning about Shakespeare's Romeo & Juliet in their English lessons this term. Do you know the tale of this tragic love story?

Juliet
Shakespeare presents Juliet as a confident character.
This is evidence that she is confident because of the pilgrim kiss they use in prayer.
So this shows that she is confident because she agreed to kiss Romeo.
Prince
Shakespeare presents the Prince as a harsh character.
This quote shows this: "Stop fighting or I shall put a all to death."
This shows that the Prince is harsh because he threatens to kill all of the Capulet family and the Montague family.
Fyrbalt
Shakespeare presents Fyrbalt as a violent person.
How I show this is: "Fetch my rapier boy."
This shows that Fyrbalt is violent because he intended to hit Romeo with his sword.

Gerulio
Shakespeare presents Gerulio as a calm character.
This quote shows this: "See where he comes so please you still aside."
This shows he is a calm character because he tries to stop the fight and have peace so no one dies.
Lady Capulet
Shakespeare presents Lady Capulet as a kind character.
This quote shows this: "How should I comfort thee gentle coz, let him alone."
This shows he's nice because she made Fyrbalt leave their mortal enemy alone because he respected Romeo.
Lady Capulet
Shakespeare presents Lady Capulet as a mean woman.
This quote shows this: "Look at him the depressed little boy."
This shows that she is mean because she called her own son depressed little boy.

DID YOU KNOW?

The Sun is over 4.5 billion years old!! The Sun started as a cloud of dust and gas. It slowly formed a massive center and got hotter until it became the Sun.
