Monday 30th September 2024

On Tuesday it marks the beginning of 'Black History Month'

In the UK, Black History Month is a time for reflection and positive changes for the future. During Black History Month, people can celebrate the outstanding contributions that Black and Mixed heritage people have made to society across the globe, both today and historically. Black History Month originating in the United States of America, but it's now a global event.

The theme for this year is, 'reclaiming narratives'. This theme focuses on sharing stories of Black history and culture, as well as correcting historical inaccuracies.

I'm Mary Seacole, I wanted to help wounded soldiers in the Crimean War, but the government refused because of my skin colour. I paid to travel there myself.

I'm Marcus Rashford, I play for football for England. But something that I am also known for is securing funding for free school meals during COVID and school holidays.

I'm Diane Abbott MP, now you may be wondering who I am? MP stands for Member of Parliament. Did you know that I was the first black female to become a member of parliament?

★ WOW WORK! ★

All of our WOW Work this week again comes from the amazing work students have been completing in their English lessons. Well done to EI in Group 8, Ewan C in A3 and Oscar J in Group 4 for these fantastic pieces of work.

Did you know that the United States of America had already been observing their own version of Black History Month for over 61 years before the UK began their Black History Month observations?
